

Updated COVID-19 Requirements for All Events

- Revised 8/25/2021

Alaska Center for the Performing Arts joins their partners at Anchorage Opera, Anchorage Symphony Orchestra and Anchorage Concert Association in announcing new COVID-19 mitigation requirements as of September 1, 2021, to ensure the safe and successful return and continuation of live performances in Anchorage.

What to expect:

All attendees to events at the Alaska Center for the Performing Arts must provide either proof of vaccination against COVID-19 completed at least two weeks prior to the event, or proof of a negative result for a COVID-19 test taken within 72 hours of the show.

Also, all attendees, regardless of vaccination status or test result, are required to wear masks at all performances and events.

These requirements will remain in place while transmission levels in Anchorage are High or Substantial according to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and Alaska's Department of Health and Social Services.

Basic Details:

Attendees over the age of 12 must provide either proof of vaccination against COVID-19 completed at least two weeks prior to the event, or provide proof of a negative result for a COVID-19 test taken within 72 hours of the show. Proof of vaccination must be in the form of a vaccine card or record or a photo of a vaccine card or record and a matching photo ID. Proof of a negative test result may be in printed or digital format.

Attendees under the age of 12 must provide proof of a negative result for a COVID-19 test taken within 72 hours of the show. Proof of a negative test result may be in printed or digital format.

In addition, masks are currently required for all guests and personnel, regardless of vaccination status or test result, in accordance with CDC and state guidelines for indoor gatherings in areas with Substantial or High community transmission. Currently, transmission levels in Anchorage are High according to both the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and Alaska's Department of Health and Social Services.

Additional Details:

Masks must be worn at all times while visiting Alaska Center for the Performing Arts except when eating or drinking in designated areas. All masks must completely cover the nose and mouth and comply with the CDC guidelines for acceptable face coverings. If you do not have a mask, Alaska Center for the Performing Arts will have masks available at the door.

We are allowing refunds on all tickets to accommodate those not willing or able to meet these requirements. Also, if you have tested positive for COVID-19, are waiting for COVID-19 test results, have COVID-19 symptoms, or if you have had close contact with a person who has tested positive for COVID-19 please stay home and request a refund prior to the show. To receive a refund for your tickets, contact the CenterTix box office at 263-2787 or complete this form.

These safety measures were created with the health and wellbeing of our artists, event employees and volunteers, production staff, audience, and the community in mind. If the level of community transmission falls below Substantial, these requirements may be lifted. Due to the often changing public health environment, all rules and guidelines are subject to change. You can play a part in decreasing COVID-19 transmission levels in Anchorage: wear a mask, get vaccinated, and stay safe.

Thank you for your support.
